PIGS ON PARADE

Pigs on Parade 2015 was a phenomenal success bringing in over €200,000 in funds for Jack & Jill. The pigs were dotted all over Dublin City during February and March and created great excitement.

Our thanks to all the artists, businesses, sponsors and general public that supported the campaign.

100 piggies were sold in both online and live auctions in March and are all now settled in their new homes with some even going as far a field as Greece, Poland, U.K. and Canada. We are looking forward to next years campaign. Watch this space...

A NOTE FROM JONATHAN IRWIN

Sustainability is the buzz word for the Government's Spring Statement. A word we're all too familiar with in Jack & Jill in terms of budgeting and raising the €2.7million we need every year to do what we do. And it's the public and our families and corporate champions that make us sustainable, not our State funding.

Meanwhile, there's a real case for extending our service to children up to the age of 6 and the Joint Oireachtas Committee for Health & Children have recommended more funding for us to do just that. Mind you, they haven't said where we get this funding and we look to Ministers Varadkar and Noonan for that. So we'll prepare our case for extending the service, backed up by 17 years of effective delivery from qualified, experienced nurses who've supported 1800 children to-date. As usual, our families are our ambassadors and chief fundraisers and we thank you.

NATIONAL CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Question—is this:

- a. An Up The Hill for Jack & Jill destination shot?
- b. The offsite venue for next Fine Gael think in?
- c. The entrance for National Children's Hospital?

The answer unfortunately is c. and this would be funny if it wasn't so serious. With the Rotunda Hospital moving to Connolly Hospital in Blanchardstown there's no excuse for Minister Varadkar not to reopen the file on Blanchardstown, rather than condemn our children to the wrong site for the Children's Hospital over the next 100 years. We want to hear your views and, with planning permission pending, you can keep up to date on our Facebook page.

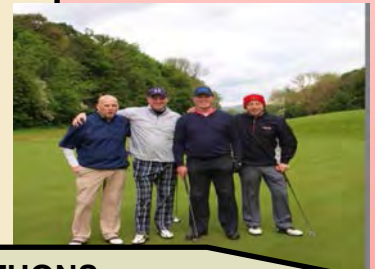

ANNUAL GOLF CLASSIC IN MOUNT JULIET

Jack & Jill's Annual Golf Classic takes place on May 22nd in Mount Juliet. As per last year, the format will be a 'Shotgun' start at 2pm followed by dinner in the luxurious surroundings of Mount Juliet.

The donation to the Foundation per team is €1024—equivalent to one months home nursing care for one baby under our wing, covers the golf team of 4, lunch on arrival, tickets for 8 people for dinner (including wine).

Last year we were delighted to welcome new supporters to our event and hope to see them again with some more new faces. To book a team please contact the office on 045 -894538 or email info@jackandjill.ie. Only a limited number of team slots left!

CHANGE FOR CHARITY

We are delighted to have been selected as one of the charities to benefit from the new 'Change for Charity' campaign. This is a Nationwide fundraising campaign which will raise much needed funds for Charities across Ireland. Ask your school to come on board and be in with a chance to win some great class prizes! www.jackandjill.ie
